The musical score is written for piano in 2/2 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It begins with a piano introduction marked 'Playfully' and a tempo of quarter note = 100. The introduction features a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand, with dynamics ranging from piano (p) to forte (f). The main piece starts at measure 4 with a vocal line for the Woodpecker and a piano accompaniment. The Woodpecker's line is in the treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is in the grand staff. The lyrics are: 'Woodpecker: I've got a splinter in my beak, and it's killing me!' and 'Tree: Now be quiet! We're going to sing.' The chorus begins at measure 7, marked 'f Chorus', with the lyrics: 'How much wood does a wood - peck - er peck when a wood - peck - er pecks on wood? When a wood - peck - er pecks that'. The score continues with piano accompaniment for the chorus.
